

MORNING APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY.....AUGUST 15, 1877

FUNERAL OF HENRY B. BOSTWICK.

The funeral services of the late Henry B. Bostwick were conducted in the Episcopal church yesterday afternoon at the hour appointed, by the rector of the church, the Rev. Mr. Foote. The church was well filled with the friends and acquaintances of the deceased. The chief mourners were Mr. and Mrs. Driesbach, with whom Mr. Bostwick had for many years made his home, Mr. Yerington, Mr. Hutchinson, Capt. Haynie and Mr. Charles Osborne of Virginia, all intimate friends, together with the pall bearers Messrs. Helm, Frazer, King, Pinckney, Crawford and Rail. The beautiful burial service of the Episcopal church was made exceedingly impressive by the calm and earnest reading of the rector and by the touching rendition of the choir, consisting of Mrs. Bender, Misses Spence and Hodgkinson and Messrs. Laughlin, Mason and Scoville, of a chant from the 39th and 90th Psalms, of the 520th Hymn, beginning with the words, "Far from my heavenly home," etc.; and of a second chant commencing "I heard a voice from heaven." Loving hands had prepared a beautiful wreath and cross of pure white flowers, which were laid upon the casket. These were emblematic of the Christian faith of which Mr. Bostwick in his life had been such a sincere and devoted follower, and of the wreath of glory which will be his reward in the world to come. Bouquets of flowers were also placed within the casket upon his breast and pillow. Mr. Bostwick's face seemed almost as natural as in life and appeared as if he had gently fallen into a calm slumber. No traces were there of the terrible death struggle which he had so recently had with the pitiless waters of Lake Tahoe. A large procession followed the remains to the cemetery, and thus has ended the life of a man for whom it is the highest praise that can be said: He was in life beyond reproach.

THE DIRECT RAILROAD.—A gentleman whose interest are thoroughly identified with Reno was in Carson last evening, and stated that he has heard more talk about the "direct" railroad from Reno to Virginia during his short visit here than one could hear in Reno for a week. He does not believe that any practical results will be born from all this railroad smoke that has been created in the metropolis of Washoe county. The gentleman to whom we refer is a representative man of the community in which he resides. His statement is to the effect that not $4,000 could be collected in Reno for the consummation of this erratic railroad scheme. The people of Reno have no reasons to complain of the treatment they have received at the hands of the Virginia & Truckee Railway Co. and are perfectly willing to let well enough alone. Our informant says that the few dissatisfied Renoites may hold two or three more railroad meetings, but it is his firm conviction that the whole affair will end in smoke.

At an early hour yesterday morning a woman of the town, under the influence of liquor, became boisterous to such a degree that she attracted the attention of one of our police officers, who proceeded to take her in charge. She accompanied the officer with a lamb-like docility to the jail, but while the officer was searching for the key with which to unlock the prison door, Miss Docility skipped out of the Sheriff's office and down the main street like a scared wolf. The policeman looked after his flown bird with a mingled feeling of surprise and disgust, but did not pursue his escaped prisoner. He moralized that one who would run as fast and straight as that woman ran, certainly could not be drunk. As there was no other charge but drunkenness to be docketed against the woman, no further attempt has been made to secure her.

ACCIDENT AT THE MINT.—About 8 o'clock yesterday morning an accident occurred in the melting room of the Mint by which Mr. Frank Kennedy, foreman of that room was severely injured. He was ascending from the cellar on an elevator which contained a truck full of fine silver, and when he had reached the level of the melting room a catch on the side of the elevator gave way and precipitated Mr. Kennedy with fearful velocity a distance of fifteen feet. He was picked up in a semi-unconscious state, and a physician called into the mint to examine his injuries. The examination resulted in establishing the fact that Mr. Kennedy was badly bruised about the limbs and breast, however not of a dangerous character. He received a nervous shock from which it will take him some time to recover. The injured man was removed to his residence.

OF SILVER LAKE, a correspondent of the Enterprise says: "The waters of the lake have been raised by damming about twenty feet, thus partially submerging and killing many acres of pines along its borders. The dry leaves still cling to the branches, and by firing them from a boat, we were entertained with some really magnificent fireworks in the evening. In a minute or two after the match was applied the whole tree was in a blaze. The flames shot up instantly, lighting up the white rocks on the shore beyond, and imparting a weird look to the dead and dying pines covering a large surface of the lake."

Suits have been commenced by the city against the Consolidated Virginia and California Mining Companies to recover the tax upon the net proceeds of these mines for the quarter ending March 31, 1877. The amount claimed against the Consolidated Virginia is $3,530.79 for tax and $882.62 for penalty—total, $4,413.41 and costs; against the California, $19,003.56 for tax and $4,750.80 penalty—total, $23,754.45.

Samuel L. Jones, superintendent of the Crown Point mining company, passed through by yesterday morning's lightning train from San Francisco, where he had been to attend the funeral of his brother, the late Edwin L. Jones.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

Opinions in the following cases were placed on file yesterday:

J. C. Hagerman respondent vs. Ting Lee defendant, P. N. Marker & Co. appellants. Opinion by Hawley C. J. concurred in by the whole court. The orders appealed from are reversed and cause remanded for further proceedings.

The State of Nevada respondent vs. Clark, Cowell, impleaded by Byron Graham and Stephen Winnie, appellants. Opinion by Leonard, J. concurred in by full bench, the judgment and order of the court below are affirmed.

Courtney et al respondents vs. Turner and Richey, appellants. Opinion by Beatty J. full bench concurring. The judgment of the District Court and its order overruling Defendants motion for a new trial affirmed. This is an action for the recovery of a tract of land. At the close of the trial in the District Court, the defendants moved for a non suit, which motion being overruled, they declined to offer any testimony on their part and the plaintiffs had judgment.

R. M. Daggett, R. H. Lindsay and Hon. William Woodburn have returned from a trip among the lakes and valleys of the Sierras. From them the Enterprise gains the following: The fishing at Hope valley and in Woodford canyon is not first rate, yet it is no trouble to go out any evening or morning and catch two or three dozen trout. There are three valleys at the head of the Carson river, on this side of the summit of the Sierras, named respectively Faith, Hope and Charity. Faith valley is described as a perfect little gem among mountain valleys. Silver Lake is over the summit in California, and on the headwaters of the Mokelumne. It is a beautiful sheet of water and filled with trout. On the summit of the Sierras, in passing over to Silver Lake, is seen the name of Kit Carson, carved by himself on a hemlock tree in 1844. He shaved off the rough outside bark with a butcher-knife, then cut his name and date so deep in the bark underneath, that both are perfectly distinct to this day. They found the nights cold, but with a good roaring camp fire and plenty of blankets made themselves quite comfortable. There was a heavy frost on the ground nearly every morning.

U. S. Marshal Augustus Ash yesterday impaneled the following United States Grand Jury, who are to appear in the United States District Court, Judge Hillyer, Monday, the 20th instant, at 10 o'clock A. M., and answer to their names, viz: O. T. Barber, J. G. Fox, J. H. Cheney, J. B. Cornack, W. H. Corbett, G. A. Tyrrell, Jacob Tobriner, D. C. Turner, H. S. Mason, L. S. Greenlaw, H. G. Parker, S. C. Chase, G. L. Gibson, A. Lewis, Benjamin Harris, R. E. Kelly, A. May, G. B. Hill, R. R. Brown, B. Oleovich, C. W. Friend, A. S. Gould, D. Circe.

Excursion and camping out parties belonging to Carson and Virginia, are daily coming in, with the brown color, denoting good health upon their countenances. All are in good spirits, and appear to have had a good time. It is a noteworthy fact that with the large number of parties organized during the Summer, for excursions to Hope Valley, Silver Lake and other intermediate points, no accidents have been reported.

At the meeting of the Board of City Trustees, on Monday evening, a petition signed by leading citizens was read, to compel the ranchers west of the city to allow a portion of the water to flow through the city limits. It is to be hoped that this will be accomplished, if for nothing else than to cleanse the sewers.

The Anderson surveying party is progressing very rapidly with their work in Douglas county. The heat out there is intense, but that does not deter the members comprising the expedition from doing good work.

Stocks.—A depressed array of figures was to be noticed on the list of stock quotations yesterday. There appeared to be no stability in the market. Rich developments would be warmly welcomed by all just now.

Frank Bell, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and Mr. Robert Ingalls, his nephew, came to Carson yesterday for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late H. B. Bostwick.

The fifteenth annual session of the Supreme Lodge of the Knights of Pythias of the World commenced their sessions in Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday. About 5,000 Knights were in attendance.

The southern stage brought in last evening, consigned to Wells, Fargo & Co., for reshipment to San Francisco, 5 bars bullion from the Northern Belle mine, valued at $9,358.

The St. Paul's Sunday school of Virginia City, and the St. John's Sunday school of Cold Hill, will take in a picnic at Treadway's grove in Carson on next Saturday.

The annual picnic of the Miners' Union will take place at Treadway's place in Carson on the 8th of September.
